WHAT IS ROOMS IN A BOX?

Rooms in a Box is a pre-engineered solution designed to transform any meeting space to a collaborative workspace featuring state-of-the-art video conferencing. RiaB is available for four different room sizes and includes professional services for implementation, training and support.

Customer benefits:

- Delivers audio/video solutions at a fixed price

- Transforms any meeting space to a video-ready conference room that meets business collaboration needs

- Accelerates ROI with professional deployment and standardized processes right from the start

- Eliminates hiring in-house experts and saves overhead costs, with quicker resolution times

- Increases efficiency with easy-to-use conference room setup

- Improves productivity with quality video conferencing rooms that provide collaboration among colleagues, clients, and partners

- Hardware comes with manufacturer warranties

- Instills peace of mind that implementation is being done by a dedicated RingCentral Project Manager

Customer pain points and opportunities:

- A lack of knowledge regarding hardware and software selections for conferencing needs

- No trusted vendors to help with hardware and setup

- No in-house expertise and prior experience in buying and installing audio/video conferencing equipment

- Lack of comprehensive support strategy, post-implementation

- Audio/video vendors are localized, expensive, and lack national outreach

Rooms in a Box included services:

- Pre-service consultation to ensure each Rooms in a Box package is right for the customer's room needs

- Equipment and material shipment directly to customers' locations

- On-site hardware and software installations and deployment

- Integration configured with preferred calendars

- Comprehensive post-installation trainings for IT, administrators, and end users

- All travel and expenses
